CUBAN POLITICAL MATTERS

On October 31, 1956, Miami Source [REDACTED] who has furnished reliable information in the past, reported that [REDACTED] whom he suspects [REDACTED]

On November 6, Source [REDACTED] said that [REDACTED] had not yet come to Miami, but that [REDACTED] had disclosed that several meetings were scheduled by the Cuban exiles, whom he did not identify and Dominican officials in Miami and that the Dominican government would afford training to Cubans in the Dominican Republic.

The November 6, 1956, issue of "Ataja" (Cuban daily), published in Havana, carried a photograph of CARLOS PRIO, exiled former President of Cuba with the caption "CARLOS PRIO Plans To Flood The Cuban Soil With Blood." The same newspaper carried an article entitled "PRIO Establishes His General Headquarters in Trujillo City," reading as follows:

" PRIO does not stop in his plans to flood the Cuban soil with blood, in collusion with the Tyrant of Santo Domingo. Prevented by the decision of the North American Federal authorities from maintaining his revolutionary camp in Miami, he has transferred it to the welcoming shores of Santo Domingo. Thirty-two Cubans and thirty Mexicans, "condottieri" in the service of PRIO, TRUJILLO and FIDEL were the last shipment via the Dominican Line, on the first of this month.

On November 14, 1956, Source [REDACTED] reported that

A large contingent of men will embark from the Dominican Republic for Cuba in the vicinity of Camaguey. They will take special precautions to circumvent the U. S. Base at Guantanamo Bay, Oriente Province. "D" day will be marked by large explosions from bombs dropped by planes flying over the Army barracks at Camp Columbia and elsewhere throughout Cuba. Source [redacted] informant claims that there are more than 15 planes in the Dominican Republic which will be used for this purpose and that there are a number of Cuban pilots now in Cuba who will make their way to the Dominican Republic at the proper time to pilot these planes. Source [redacted] learned from another informant that about three days previously, CARLOS PRIO [redacted] b7C/D

Source [redacted] (C)(u) there is a general exodus of anti-Batista Cuban exiles from Florida and Mexico to the Dominican Republic and that some of these are going via Kingston, Jamaica. b7D

Examination of airline manifests at INS, Miami, from October 1 through November 10, 1956, reflects that a total of 24 Cubans left Miami by Dominican airlines directly for Ciudad Trujillo, Dominican Republic; and that since October 21, three Cubans went directly to Ciudad Trujillo via Pan American World Airlines; it was also noted that on October 25 and 26, three Cubans went via PAA to Kingston, Jamaica. Sources [redacted] have advised that most of these Cubans are known to them as being either pro-PRIO, pro-FIDEL CASTRO or anti-BATISTA. b7D

The November 14, 1956 issue of the Miami Herald carried an article entitled "PRIO Named in Cuban Indictment" with a Havana United Press dateline. This article revealed that indictment had been charged at the Urgency Court, Havana, against PRIO for crimes against the Cuban State. The indictment was reportedly based on police reports that opposition elements were promoting the overthrow of the government of BATISTA by invasion through the Western end of Cuba coordinated with a program of assassination of official figures and other acts of terrorism.

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

This article stated that Colonel ORLANDO PIEDRA, Chief of the Bureau of Investigations, specifically accused PRIO of furnishing $200,000. to FIDEL CASTRO for organizing and carrying out the invasion. According to the charge, the conspirators held two meetings at a Miami, Florida hotel, October 22 and 23, where they completed the plans for the coordinated invasions and out break of terrorism to be started some time in mid-November. The article stated that the indictment named PRIO and more than twenty members of his political party, most of whom were in exile.

On November 14, 1956, Miami Source [REDACTED] who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised that about four weeks previously, CARLOS PRIO had converted Cuban pesos into a sum of $18,000. in American money. Source [REDACTED] did not know for what purpose PRIO made this conversion. b7D

On November 15, 1956, Miami Source [REDACTED] who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised that PRIO or a representative of PRIO, had recently held a rendezvous somewhere between Miami and Jacksonville, Florida [REDACTED] and that by pre-arrangement between PRIO and [REDACTED] had followed PRIO [REDACTED] to this rendezvous as a counter-surveillance measure. It is to be noted that on October 24, 1956, CARLOS PRIO was interrogated by INS, Miami, relative to his parole agreement not to engage in any activity looking toward the overthrow of the Government of a friendly power. PRIO denied that he has engaged in any such activity and he claimed to have no connection with FIDEL CASTRO or Generalissimo TRUJILLO.

[redacted] that [redacted] had informed Prio in Miami that the $200,000.00 which Prio had sent to the Dominican Republic was just enough to purchase twenty cars and not enough for revolutionary purposes. The young general also protested the fact that Fidel Castro, leader of the July 26 Movement against Batista had, by his statements to the press, to the effect that he would either be a martyr or the liberator of Cuba by the end of 1956, placed the Batista Government on notice as to when revolutionary action against Batista was planned and therefore definitely weakened the chances of success by a surprise attack.

[redacted] told [redacted] that the purchase of tickets by Cubans in the Miami area for the Dominican Republic had become known to the FBI and that hereafter these Cubans, followers of Prio, had been instructed to travel to the Dominican Republic via connecting carriers from other points such as New York City, by way of Varig Airlines.

b7C

[redacted] disclosed to [redacted] that a Dominican Air Force General, whom he did not identify, was in Miami to talk to Cubans whom he did not identify. He also advised that a Dominican gunboat had been scheduled to come to Miami, but due to the above complications he did not now know if this boat would arrive.

b2/b7D

With regard to the information furnished by [redacted] above related, there has been no confirmation of the report that Prio had sent $200,000.00 to the Dominican Republic.

b2/b7D

With regard to the purchase of tickets by Cubans in the Miami area for the Dominican Republic, examination of manifests at the Immigration and Naturalization Service, Miami, reflects that during the period from November 11, 1956 to November 18, 1956, a total of fourteen Cubans traveled by airline directly to the Dominican Republic. Miami Informants [redacted] and [redacted] who are well informed concerning Cuban exiles in the Miami area, advised that most of these Cubans were known to be followers of Carlos Prio.

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

With regard to the Dominican gunboat mentioned above, it is to be noted that in November, 1956, the Department of State advised that the Dominican Embassy in Washington had requested permission to bring their Corvette C-101 to Miami for the purpose of escorting boats purchased from the Bahamas Adventures, Inc. This Corvette reportedly was scheduled to leave the Dominican Republic on November 17, 1956. On November 26, 1956,

[redacted] advised that the Marine Division of the United States Customs, Miami, possessed no record reflecting that this vessel had arrived in Miami, and that a routine inquiry revealed that the Dominican Consulate in Miami possessed no information concerning the expected arrival of this vessel. b7C

On November 23, 1956, Miami Informants [redacted] and [redacted] advised that they had just received information from a most reliable informant [redacted]

[redacted] Carlos Prio, [redacted] Prio had just returned to Miami from the Dominican Republic where he [redacted] members of the Prio group in the Dominican Republic. [redacted] and [redacted] said that their informant reported as follows: That Carlos Prio is being used as a front by Generalissimo Rafael Trujillo in his plan to launch a revolutionary attack against the Batista Government of Cuba. Trujillo is being aided by a small faction of Cubans [redacted] b2/b7D b7C

[redacted] went to the Dominican Republic about nine months ago after being refused re-entry into Cuba without [redacted] criminal prosecution. He reportedly began to conspire with Trujillo and was soon joined in the Dominican Republic [redacted]

[redacted] and [redacted], known [redacted], who went to the Dominican Republic several months ago after fleeing Cuba in a small fishing boat which landed at Miami. (S)(u)

After Prio returned to Florida from Cuba in 1956, under compulsion of the Batista Government, he made a deal with Trujillo, who promised to furnish arms, ammunition, equipment, and a base of operations in the Dominican Republic, and Prio promised to send his followers to the Dominican Republic for training and preparation in order to launch an invasion of Cuba from the Dominican Republic. Prio had been under the impression that he would be the leader of this movement with Trujillo's help, but now Prio finds that his men in Cuba are virtual prisoners and that General Trujillo is completely dominating the plan. Prio has approximately 120 men in the Dominican Republic. (S)(u)

After Prio's emissary brought back news of the fact that his men are virtual prisoners in the Dominican Republic, and that Trujillo is "calling the shots", Prio appeared to be very much upset and was perplexed as to what course of action to follow. He has expressed fear for the lives of his men in the Dominican Republic. Most of these individuals are personal friends of Prio. (S)(u) b7C

Prio's emissary also learned that the small group of Cubans [redacted] obey Trujillo and Trujillo considers these men as his own. (S)(u) b7C

Prio now knows that he cannot trust Trujillo and is, therefore, faced with an impasse. Prio's emissary also learned that Trujillo planned to use Prio and his followers so that he could later report to the United Nations, following the revolutionary attack upon Batista from the Dominican base, that it is Prio and not himself who has launched the attack. (S)(u) b7C

According to information received by the informant of [redacted] and [redacted] the Prio Cubans in Dominican Republic are located the distance of one hour's car ride from Ciudad Trujillo, at a camp referred to as "campito". They are allowed to leave this camp only when accompanied by Trujillo's men. They receive rigorous training, arising at 4:45 a.m. each day. They are instructed by Dominican Army officers. Also in this camp are several Cuban pilots who have not been allowed to get close to an airplane. (S)(u) b2/b7D

Office Memorandum • UNITED STATES GOVERNMENT

TO : Director, FBI

FROM : WDA Legal Attache, Havana, Cuba (109-54)

SUBJECT: FOREIGN POLITICAL MATTERS - CUBA

DATE: December 3, 1956

ReBulet 5-7-56 to Legat, Paris, captioned "ESPIONAGE AND FOREIGN INTELLIGENCE MATTERS" (Bufile 66-6200-65). In accordance with the instructions therein, the following summary is submitted:

The Government of Cuba continues to be headed by President FULGENCIO BATISTA Y. ZALDIVAR. His Government has announced partial elections to be held in 1957 to be followed by presidential elections in 1958. This proposal of the Government has met with little popular response among the opposition to the Government, it being generally alleged that BATISTA has been illegally in office since he took over by coup d'etat on March 10, 1952.

As has been reported to the Bureau, a revolutionary outbreak against the BATISTA Government was started at Santiago de Cuba on November 30, 1956. According to published official statements of the Cuban Government, this revolutionary outbreak is a part of the activities of the so-called 26 of July Movement headed by FIDEL CASTRO. It appears to have little chances of success, although the Government is having some difficulty in controlling it.

The BATISTA Government continues to exhibit a strong anti-Communist attitude. The Communists, as set forth in their weekly clandestine publication "Carta Semanal," are very anti-Batista and anti-United States, alleging that BATISTA is nothing more than a lackey of the United States. The Party has for the last several months through the media of the "Carta Semanal" and other clandestine leaflets and pamphlets, endeavored to promote a movement to build up a general strike against BATISTA in order that he will be forced out of office. This movement appears to have little popular following to date.

An additional letter will be submitted to the Bureau on June 1, 1957.

The above named individuals were met in Assistant Director Tamm's

Office at about 10:00 a.m. this date, and conducted on a Special Tour by SA [redacted], of the Crime Records Section. Captain Gutierrez explained that Colonel Ferrer is the new Cuban Military Attache and having recently arrived in the United States, has a limited understanding of English. It was his request that they be conducted on a tour more to familiarize Colonel Ferrer with the various facilities available to a law enforcement agency by the FBI rather than an explanation of the various tour projects and scenes. Colonel Ferrer stated that training of police in Cuban law enforcement was one of the major problems facing that country, and he was desirous of learning some methods used in this country and by the FBI in particular.

Captain Gutierrez stated that if possible, Colonel Ferrer would like to return at a later date for a more detailed tour, at which time he would have a better understanding of the general investigative jurisdiction of the FBI as well as the ability to converse and ask questions on his own behalf.

Both Colonel Ferrer and Captain Gutierrez expressed their appreciation of the courtesies shown them during the tour.

Mr. Nichols has been told about this request and said he will tell the Ambassador that we do not have a class at Quantico this week so there would be nothing of interest to show the party. A new agents' class did start after Thanksgiving and is presently at Quantico, but there are no older, in-service agents there now.

The Ambassador did not inquire today about the possibility of Mr. Hoover being in tomorrow.

[On 12/31/56, [REDACTED] called attention to an article which appeared in the December 30, 1956, issue of "Informacion," a newspaper published in Havana, Cuba, in the Spanish language. This article was entitled "'ESTRECHARA VINCULOS LA VISITA DE BARRETO', DICE HECTOR TRUJILLO," and it bore a Ciudad Trujillo dateline of December 29 (A.P.), reading as follows:

"President HECTOR TRUJILLO told newspapers today, with reference to the visit of Minister of Agriculture of Cuba, J. BARRETO MARTINEZ, and a group of Cuban countrymen to assist at the Second International Livestock Fair at Ciudad Trujillo, as per request of the Dominican Government, that they are pleased to see the Cubans are going there and they will be welcomed by the government and people of Ciudad Trujillo. This visit will contribute to close the traditional friendship between both countries."

[REDACTED] stated he had learned from a highly confidential informant, [REDACTED], that on 12/23/56, CARLOS PRIO sent an emissary, [REDACTED], to Haiti to see the new President of Haiti, in order to ascertain if PRIO would be welcome there on a visit. [REDACTED] said [REDACTED] returned from Haiti with a "Yes" answer.

has with Generalissimo RAFAEL TRUJILLO of the Dominican Republic is now broken. When [REDACTED] remarked that this was good and asked PRIO if he were going to discontinue his plan to overthrow BATISTA, PRIO answered, "No, I have contacted the ROMULOS (ROMULO BETANCOURT and ROMULO GALLEGOS, exiled former President and former President-Elect, respectively, of Venezuela) and ARBENZ (JACOB ARBENZ, former pro-Communist President of Guatemala). What I am planning now is a bogotasan. The farm country is already hot and what we need is a bogotasan in the City of Havana." [REDACTED] said that PRIO apparently had reference to a student uprising which occurred several years ago at Bogota, Colombia, during a hemispheric conference. b2 b7c b7D

(u) (S) [REDACTED] said that when [REDACTED] questioned PRIO as to what would happen to the Cubans now in Ciudad Trujillo, PRIO remarked that there were too many of them in Ciudad Trujillo for TRUJILLO to kill and that TRUJILLO would have no alternative other than to send them back to Miami. b2 b7c b7D

It is to be noted that investigation by Miami reflects that approximately 100 Cubans have left Miami for Ciudad Trujillo during the past two and one-half months.

[REDACTED] (S) (u) said that, notwithstanding the above information, PRIO has indicated to other associates of his that he still plans to send other Cubans to the Dominican Republic. [REDACTED] said it is possible, also, that the informant who reported the above information may be purposely furnishing false information in order to assist PRIO in carrying out his plans. The source said that he has some doubts concerning the loyalty of the above informant. b2 b7c b7D

POLITICAL MATTERS - CUBA - DOMINICAN REPUBLIC

On December 31, 1956, an informant who has furnished reliable information in the past called attention to an article which appeared in the December 30, 1956, issue of "Informacion," a newspaper published in Havana, Cuba, in the Spanish language. This article reads as follows:

"President Heater Trujillo told newspapers today, with reference to the visit of Minister of Agriculture of Cuba, J. Barreto Martinez, and a group of Cuban countrymen to assist at the Second International Livestock Fair at Ciudad Trujillo, as per request of the Dominican Government, that they are pleased to see the Cubans are going there and they will be welcomed by the government and people of Ciudad Trujillo. This visit will contribute to close the traditional friendship between both countries."

The above-mentioned informant advised that he had learned from a source that on December 23, 1956, Carlos Prío, former President of Cuba, sent an emissary, [redacted] Cuba, to Haiti to see the new President of Haiti, in order to ascertain if Prío would be welcome there on a visit. According to the informant [redacted] returned from Haiti with a "Yes" answer.

The above-mentioned informant advised that several days ago it was learned through another source that Prío told [redacted] that the treaty Prío had with Generalissimo Rafael Trujillo of the Dominican Republic is now broken. When [redacted] remarked that this was good and asked Prío if he was going to discontinue his plan to overthrow Batista, Prío answered, "No, I have contacted the Romulos (Romulo Betancourt and Romulo Gallegos, exiled former President and former President-elect, respectively, of Venezuela) and Arbenz (Jacob Arbenz, former President of Guatemala). What I am planning now is a bogotazo. The farm country is already hot and what we need is a bogotazo in the City of Havana."

Cuban Political Matters
Political Matters - Cuba - Dominican Republic

The above-mentioned informant stated that Prio apparently had reference to a student uprising which occurred several years ago at Bogota, Columbia, during a hemispheric conference.

The above-mentioned informant stated that when [REDACTED] questioned Prio as to what would happen to the Cubans presently in Ciudad Trujillo, Prio remarked that there were too many of them in Ciudad Trujillo for Trujillo to kill and that Trujillo would have no alternative other than to send them back to Miami. b7c 17

The above-mentioned informant stated that notwithstanding the above information, Prio indicated to other associates that he still plans to send other Cubans to the Dominican Republic. The informant stated that it is possible that the source who reported the above information may be purposely furnishing false information in order to assist Prio in carrying out his plans. Informant stated that he had some doubts concerning the loyalty of the above source.

Rebels Face Wizard of Revolt in Batista

FOREIGN POLITICAL MATTERS - CUBA -
DOMINICAN REPUBLIC

When Cuban rebels try to overthrow the government of President Fulgencio Batista they are dealing with a pro-ssor of revolt.

The former army sergeant s climbed into the presiden- saddle twice by riding mili- ry-backed revolts.

He became Cuba's strong- in in 1933 after the fall President Gerardo Macha- Sgt. Batista and a selected group of non-commissioned officers, aided by University of Havana students, then knocked out a weak provi- sional government and Ramon Grau San Martin became president.

Batista became chief of staff with the rank of colonel but he forced Grau out of office early in 1934 because the president couldn't gain recognition of the United States.

For the next five years Batista controlled each president. He had taken the title of Chief of the Army but retired in 1939 to run for president.

Batista easily defeated Grau and took office in 1940 at the age of 39. Four years later his candidate lost out to Grau. Batista went to Daytona Beach where he spent four years in exile.

The strongman returned to Cuba as a senator in the 1944 election that made Carlos Prío Socarras president. Batista overthrew Prío in a bloodless coup on March 10, 1952.

It was supposed to be Batista against Grau in the 1954 presidential election but Grau withdrew at the last minute and it has been Batista ever since.

INTERNAL SECURITY - CUBA -
DOMINICAN REPUBLIC

On April 1, 1957, a representative of the Puerto Rican police advised that on March 29, 1957, several students of the University of Puerto Rico (UPR) demonstrated in protest against Cuban President Batista for the deaths of several Cuban students during the recent revolts in Cuba and against General Rafael Trujillo of the Dominican Republic. The demonstrations consisted of speeches by several students and picketing of the Cuban and Dominican Consulates in San Juan, Puerto Rico. The students distributed a handbill captioned "Great University Manifest in Protest Against the Cruel Aggression of the Cuban People," which vigorously protested the action of the Cuban Government during the recent riots in Cuba in which Cuban students were killed. The handbill was signed by "Committee Organizer, College of Law, UPR." The above-mentioned representative advised that the demonstrations were carried out without untoward incidents and in a peaceful manner. Investigation by the Puerto Rican police failed to indicate a connection between the demonstrators and known subversive groups in Puerto Rico.

The above is for your information.

Cuban Political Situation

1. On 5 March 1957 in a conversation with an Embassy officer, Jose Pardo Liada, well-known radio commentator, journalist, and leader of the Partido Nacionalista Revolucionario (PNR, National Revolutionary Party), made the following observations regarding the political situation in Cuba:

a. There are strong indications that President Fulgencio BATISTA is confused and does not know exactly what steps to take to bring the country back to a more normal situation. The main cause has been the insurrectionary movement led by Fidel CASTRO Ruz, which has lasted much longer than BATISTA expected. Another major blow has been the failure of the Government's security agencies to stop the acts of terrorism which have plagued the country ever since late November, 1956.

b. If CASTRO's group holds out much longer against the stepped-up operations of the Armed Forces and the acts of terrorism continue, major changes in the leadership and policy of the present regime will probably occur within two or three months, with the Army having a decisive role in those changes. Although there probably exists a faction within the Army which at least sympathizes with Colonel Ramon BARQUIN and other officers involved in the April 1956 military plot, such a faction has not the strength to move against BATISTA and the other Army faction which is still loyal to BATISTA. In reality BARQUIN's conspiracy permitted BATISTA to purge the Army of those officers whose loyalty to him was weak or questionable and to strengthen his position among Army personnel by filling the vacancies created by the purge by promoting men from the ranks. It would be this loyal Army faction which would probably act, with either BATISTA's consent or his tolerance, to strengthen the Government's authority by the creation of a military junta or by having more military men occupy key Government positions, such as ministerial posts.

c. Fidel CASTRO Ruz has negligible support, if any, within the Armed Forces; and his movement would not constitute a force with which the military junta would have to reckon. CASTRO himself, if he survives, might later on have a good political future because of his role in causing the changes in policy and personnel as well as his audacity and following among Cuban youth.

d. Because no civilian stands the slightest chance of reaching the top spot in the Government without Army support, it is quite improbable if not impossible that the military junta would permit an opposition politician to assume that spot. The junta, confident that it would continue to wield the necessary authority, might eventually consent to the celebration of relatively free elections. In that event, persons like Senator Rolando ~~CASTELLANO~~, from BATISTA's Coalition and, from the opposition, ~~Jesse ALVAREZ Diaz~~, former Minister of Finance under Carlos PRIO Socarras, ~~another member of the PRR, Carlos RIVERA~~ another PRIO man with considerable prestige, and ~~Amelio CEREDA~~, present leader of the Ortodoxo Party, would probably play a leading role in the country's political activities. b7c

e. The existence of a small group of colonels, apparently loyal to BATISTA but hungry and ready to risk all for power and riches during a period of chaos or extreme disorder, has been reported. The identity of the members of this group, whose main objective is personal wealth and position, primarily, remains unknown although it has been rumored that ~~_____~~ a tough, ruthless, and capable officer might be one of its members. b7c

PARDO Llada also indicated during the conversation that he was on the alert to take advantage, as a politician, of any opportunity which BATISTA might offer to participate in as decorous elections as the circumstances permitted to the regime as well as the opposition. PARDO admitted having held conversations with persons close to BATISTA ~~on this matter~~ but said that to date BATISTA had not revealed his thinking on the political conditions laid down by PARDO, except to state categorically that he would not consent to an amnesty for political prisoners. PARDO also stated that he was taking active steps to widen his contacts among Army personnel in an effort to build up political support in that sector. He explained that previously no Army officer would dare meet with him on a social basis, but that, ever since he had abandoned the "insurrectionary line," his social meetings with superior officers of the Army had been more frequent and easier. (F-3)

2. ~~_____~~ School of Social Sciences and Public Law of the University of Habana, in a conversation with an Embassy officer on 4 March 1957, expressed his opinion of the political situation in Cuba as follows: b7c

a. The situation has become very bad; and, unless the Army is able to wipe out soon the revolutionary group in Oriente led by Fidel CASTRO Ruz and the police agencies put an end to acts of terrorism, there is the possibility that the Army may revolt, as it did against the ~~MACHADO~~ regime, in order to re-establish law and order. In the event of such a revolt taking place, a military junta would necessarily have to be formed to rule the country until the appropriate legislative steps could be taken for the election of a new government. The most important task which the military junta would have would be the selection of a provisional President, who would have to be a person highly trusted and respected by all political factions. [REDACTED] of the University of Habana, whose name was one of those mentioned as having been considered for that position by the group of military conspirators led by Ramon BARQUIN (in April 1956), would be an ideal choice in that respect. b7c

b. The military junta, which undoubtedly would be dominated by BARQUIN and his followers, many of whom are still on active duty in the Army, would have to give due credit and a say, although not necessarily an important one, to Fidel CASTRO Ruz and other members of the "26th of July Movement" for the part they played in precipitating the situation out of which the BATISTA regime represent two "impotent" opposing forces, with neither one having the power to destroy the other completely. The army is the only force which can break such an impasse. In the event that the Army faction which does not have the good interests of the country and people at heart but thinks only of self-preservation (position and property), the so-called "tanquistas," should emerge as the dominating group within the Army, then the instability of the country would be increased to the detriment of everyone concerned. The other Army faction, led by BARQUIN, would have as its main objective the creation of a truly professional and apolitical Army and, if it assumed the government reins in an emergency, would return them to a civilian authority as soon as practicable.

c. Provided a wise choice were made in filling provisionally the office of the Presidency, political activity leading to a legislative congress would be the natural follow-up. By that time many changes in the present political groupings would probably have taken place which might lead to the emergence of new leaders in the political field, but the following persons would probably figure among the leading politicians:

Carlos HEVIA/ [REDACTED]) from Carlos PRIO's faction of the Partido [REDACTED]) Revolucionario Cubano (Autentico) 6

José PARDO Llada from the Partido Nacionalista Revolucionario

Emilio OCHOA [REDACTED])
[REDACTED]) from the Ortodoxo Party

[REDACTED] Tellaheche from Ramon GRAU San Martin's faction of the PRC (A)

[REDACTED] who took an active part against the MACHADO regime, reiterated his statement that the present situation in Cuba is very similar to that in the 1930's which led to the overthrow of that regime. He added that in his opinion a change of governments in Cuba would also lead to the improvement of relations between Cuba and the United States and in the Cuban people's support of the anti-Communist battle being waged by the United States. He explained this statement by saying that the majority of the people ignore the meaning of the United States' objectives in that respect because they find that the totalitarian conditions which the United States is combatting elsewhere are tolerated here by the United States Government. (F-3)

3. On 4 March 1957 a senator, opposition leader, furnished to an Embassy officer the following information regarding groups and leaders likely to be involved in a new government should BATISTA fall:

The big four leaders are the following:

- a. Ramon GRAU San Martin of the Partido Revolucionario Cubano (Autentico) (registered), who has the greatest following with the "people."
- b. Emilio OCHOA, Partido Ortodoxo.
- c. Jose PARDO Llada, Partido Nacionalista Revolucionario, who is strong with the youth movement.
- d. Antonio de VARONA and Carlos HEVIA of the Partido Revolucionario Cubano (Autentico) (abstentionist) (PRIO Group).

(The first three parties mentioned above are already united in almost every respect, and the PRIO faction represented by VARONA and HEVIA will undoubtedly join with them.)

The following individuals are second-category leaders behind those named above:

- a. Senators [REDACTED]

- b. [REDACTED]
Pelayo CUERVO

c. [REDACTED]

- d. [REDACTED]
Luis CASERO, former vice-presidential candidate with Carlos HEVIA in 1952.

1. Killed on 13 March 1957

The following individuals, now in the present Government, might also have positions of responsibility in a new government:

- a. Guillermo-BELT, former Ambassador to the United States.
- b. Raul MENOCA, Minister of Commerce.
- c. Senator Raul LORENZO, formerly pro-Batista, who recently formed his own party, the Partido Union Cubana.
- d. Eusebio MUJAL Barniol, secretary general of the Confederacion de Trabajadores de Cuba (CTC, Cuban Workers' Confederation).

The following, not politicians but persons who command wide respect and prestige, might be called upon to participate in a new government:

- a. [REDACTED]
- b. [REDACTED]
- c. Carlos HEVIA.

b7c

The most likely head of the Army under a new government is Ramon BARQUIN. (C-3)

4. In a conversation with an Embassy officer on 1 March 1957; a newspaperman with good contacts in opposition and revolutionary circles furnished the following information concerning Cuban politics:

- a. If BATISTA fell, Ramon GRAU San Martin would be an influential figure. GRAU has indicated his desire to serve as provisional President in the event BATISTA were ousted or a junta took over; he still has considerable popular support, particularly in the interior of Cuba.
- b. Carlos HEVIA would be an important figure in any new government.
- c. Former President Carlos PRIO Socarras would not play an active role but would direct the activities of his party through some of his trusted lieutenants.
- d. Fidel CASTRO Ruz favors the appointment as interim President of the Chief Justice of the Supreme Court (as stated in the present constitution) in case his movement is successful. The Chief Justice would serve until elections could be held. Because of the active role he has played in the opposition, CASTRO would naturally play an important role in the political scene.
- e. Persons who might play a significant role or even become President in the event of change are the following:

[REDACTED]

5. On 1 March another senator, opposition leader in the PRC (A), provided an Embassy officer with the following information:

- a. In the event of BATISTA's being overthrown, Ramon BARQUIN would emerge as the strong military man and probably head the Army and/or a military junta.
- b. The senator personally would advocate running the country for a provisional period with a military-civilian-type junta (or interim President) and an impartial cabinet composed of representatives of all legitimate political parties. This group would draft a new constitution (the present Constitution of 1940 must go - it is a farce, and the people have no respect for it because of the way it has been bypassed, distorted and abused by BATISTA) and prepare machinery for national elections with full guarantees.
- c. Ramon GRAU San Martin has indicated his availability and would be willing to serve as interim or provisional President.
- d. In the event of BATISTA's fall, [REDACTED] would be qualified for the position of President, having held many high positions in various governments, including minister, senator, and representative. b7c
- e. BATISTA can no longer count on solid support from the Cuban Armed Forces, and [REDACTED] is the person most capable and most likely to lead an internal military revolt.
- f. Former President Carlos PRIO Socarras is not believed to be playing an active part in supporting the present revolutionary or terroristic activities.
- g. Although outwardly the opposition appears completely divided, various factions will unite into significant political units if and when free elections are guaranteed. (C-3)

6. Both the senator mentioned in paragraph 5 and a colleague of his seem to have firm ideas on only one point, and that is that a change is necessary; that national elections with full guarantees must be held this year and that Cuba must be restored to "elected representative government." They do not appear to have any clear thought on how this could be brought about, but both are in accord that the situation is worsening daily.

7. At the regular February meeting of the team [REDACTED] the following consensus (3) b1 b3 of opinion was arrived at concerning the probable role of the military in the event of a successful movement against President Fulgencio BATISTA and his regime:

- a. Colonel Ramon BARQUIN, leader of the abortive April 1955 military conspiracy who is now imprisoned on the Isle of Pines, would be the logical head of the Cuban Army. BARQUIN would be expected to reorganize the leadership of the Army, placing in key positions those officers who participated in the 1955 conspiracy with him and are now either in prison or retired from the Army.
- b. The Cuban Army does not at present have a general officer commensurate with his rank. [REDACTED] is considered the best qualified of the general officers; General Martin DIAZ Tamayo has no prestige in the Army, and the events in Oriente Province have prejudiced his career even more; and among the remaining high officers in the Army the most capable are [REDACTED] and [REDACTED]

8. The following further information has been developed concerning the situation in the Cuban Army:

- a. If BATISTA should retire or be forced to retire, a military junta would be formed to rule the country temporarily. That junta would consist of "second echelon" military officers rather than of those officers now holding the top positions since the majority of the latter are too closely identified with corrupt and get-rich-quick practices. [REDACTED] possibly might be an exception and might be included in the junta.
- b. Certain planning by BATISTA may indicate that he is preparing to withdraw from the political scene and wishes to do some "housecleaning" of his own beforehand. Included in BATISTA's plans are the retirement of [REDACTED] prior to June 1957, the retirement of General DIAZ Tamayo and several of the more discredited colonels in 1957, and the promotion to general of [REDACTED] all troops in the Habana area. BATISTA plans to find well-paying jobs in private industry as well as within the Government for his closer allies affected by the housecleaning.
- c. In the event that BATISTA should withdraw from the political scene, members of [REDACTED] family and/or [REDACTED] would probably have a decisive voice in the military junta that would be formed. [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] might also be included in that junta. Other military leaders, like the "10th of March colonels" ([REDACTED] etc.), and most of the current top military commanders

b7C

b7C

are discredited in the eyes of the public because of participation in self-enrichment deals; and they do not possess the power and influence of the [REDACTED] family, for example, to permit them an important say in any future military junta. b7c

- d. On 18 February 1957 the wife of a Cuban Army officer indicated that she expects Colonel Ramon BARQUIN to head the Cuban Army if and when BATISTA falls. There will be a complete change in the leadership of the Army since all present leaders are discredited; the key positions will be occupied by members of the group now imprisoned with Colonel BARQUIN on the Isle of Pines.
- e. According to radio and press releases on 26 February 1957, a new political plan drawn up by the leaders (Ramon GRAU San Martin, Jose PARDO Llada, and Emilio OCHOA) calls for the amnesty of all political prisoners, which would presumably include BARQUIN and his group. The 26th of July Movement, in its printed propaganda, has also called for the immediate release of all political prisoners, mentioning specifically BARQUIN and fellow prisoners.

9. Two members of the opposition, [REDACTED] and [REDACTED], both quite prominent politically, in a recent conversation with Embassy officers indicated that there was no agreement between the BARQUIN group and that of Fidel CASTRO Ruz and that they hoped their opposition group, and perhaps others, could bridge the gap which existed. b7c

10. Other sources generally agree that Colonel BARQUIN and his followers will have an important voice in any new government formed as a result of the overthrow of the BATISTA regime. As reported previously, BARQUIN and the majority of the officers implicated in the conspiracy which he led are considered to be top military men from the point of view of qualifications, training, and moral character. The same sources also agreed that the present military leaders, particularly the [REDACTED] family, would have a strong voice, directly or indirectly, in the military junta that would take over the government reins if BATISTA chose to withdraw on his own. b7c
Aside from the [REDACTED] and possibly [REDACTED], no other officers were specified by name as probable strong men.

SUBJECT: FOREIGN POLITICAL MATTERS - CUBA

ReBulet 5-7-56 to Legat, Paris, captioned "ESPIONAGE AND FOREIGN INTELLIGENCE MATTERS" (Bufile 66-6200-65). In accordance with the instructions contained therein the following summary is submitted:

Although the Government of Cuba continues to be headed by President FULGENCIO BATISTA y ZALDIVAR, there have been increasing indications of a lack of popularity of the BATISTA Government during the reporting period. Following the revolutionary outbreak in Santiago de Cuba on November 30, 1956, and the landing of a group of approximately 80 men under the command of FIDEL CASTRO RUZ on December 2, 1956, there have been widespread acts of sabotage and terrorism, the latter largely consisting of the setting off of bombs in different places throughout the island.

On March 13, 1957, a group of approximately 40 armed men attacked the Presidential Palace in downtown Havana for the obvious purpose of killing BATISTA who was in the Palace at the time. Although the attack was repulsed and all members of the attacking party were killed, subsequent developments indicated that with a little more organization and training the attack may well have been successful. This attack appeared to shake the BATISTA Government considerably and was followed by very strong repressive measures against members of the opposition. An example of this is the case of Dr. PELAYO CUERVO, an outstanding leader of one of the factions of the Orthodox Party, who was taken from his home on the night of March 13, 1957, and whose bullet-ridden body was found the following morning in an isolated section of a Havana suburb. The identity of the killers of Dr. CUERVO have not been established, but it is the general consensus of opinion that they were members of the Cuban National Police.

FIDEL CASTRO RUZ continues to hold forth in the Sierra Maestra mountain region in Oriente Province in the eastern part of Cuba despite efforts of the Cuban Government to dislodge him. Most recent reliable estimates are that CASTRO has 120--140 men with him.

The Cuban Congress some weeks ago set up a Bipartisan Parliamentary Commission to study ways and means of finding a peaceful solution to the Cuban problem. This Commission came out with several recommendations. The principal one was that General Elections will held on June 1, 1958, instead of November 1, 1958, as originally scheduled. This decision appears to be agreeable to the BATISTA Government and this has aided somewhat in turning the thinking of the Cuban people from revolution to elections. It remains to be seen whether a solution satisfactory to all will be worked out.

With the exception of the rather small clandestine Communist Party which continues to be most active in Cuba, there are no indications that any of the groups in opposition to the BATISTA Government are anti United States or pro Communist.

An additional letter will be submitted to reach the Bureau by December 1, 1957.

Subject: CUBAN POLITICAL MATTERS
INTERNAL SECURITY - CUBA

An individual who is in a position to furnish reliable information concerning Cuban matters advised on May 21, 1957, that there was a rumor in Havana in government circles to the effect that an agreement has been reached between Carlos Prío Socarras, former president of Cuba, and Fidel Castro, who presently is leading an invasion force in Cuba. The source stated that Prío and Castro are mutually acceptable to each other, but that no one seems to know what the terms of the agreement are between them. The source advised that a proposal to form a coalition government in Cuba with Batista as president was acceptable to Batista. The source advised, however, that Batista's advisors were not agreeable to this proposal as a possible solution to the political situation in Cuba.

The foregoing information should not be disseminated outside your department.

3 Cuban Gunmen Seized In Plot to Kill Figueres

SAN JOSE, Costa Rica -- (INS) — Police seized three Cubans Saturday on charges of plotting to assassinate President Jose Figueres of Costa Rica.

Officials claimed that the alleged triggermen were sent on their murder mission by Generalissimo Rafael L. Trujillo, the "strong man" of the Dominican Republic. They were reported to have traveled to San Jose from the Dominican Republic via Managua, Nicaragua.

Informed sources said the Cubans, Jesus Gonzalez Cartas, Juan Manuel Delgado and Herminio Diaz, had requested an audience with Figueres where they reportedly planned to assassinate the president.

In a raid on the Cubans' hotel rooms, police said they seized revolvers, a submachinegun and $5,000. Gonzalez Cartas was said to have had a revolver presented to him by Trujillo.

The public security ministry said the three alleged triggermen had been under surveillance since they entered the country.

Director, Central Intelligence Agency

NOTE ON YELLOW:

The enclosed documents of Cuban Government origin alleged that Prio has been contacting elements in Haiti through an intermediary. Prio desires to establish bases in Haiti from which he can launch attacks against Cuba to overthrow Batista. It is alleged Prio is willing to spend one million dollars among influential elements in Haiti. Most of Prio's activities in Haiti have met with failure due to the recent downfall of President Sylvain of that country, but Prio continues his efforts to establish bases in that country.

INTERVENTION OF THE EX-PRESIDENT OF CUBA, CARLOS PRIO SOCARRAS IN EVENTS IN HAITI

1. Since the first days after the downfall of the regime of ex-President Paul E. Magloire, friends of the ex-President of Cuba, Carlos Prio Socarras, started making contacts with haitian elements. This was done by member of a communist faction, trusted man of ex-President Prio, who keeps him as a mean of handing funds for their support, to the exiled men who are living in several american countries.

2. As ex-President Prio has failed from Miami in his attempts to overthrow the Government of Cuba, he has changed his plans. Seizing the opportunity when Frank Sylvain assumed power in Haiti, Temistocles Fuentes got in touch with Officers of the Haitian Army, and with some civilians, amongst some of them, , H. K. Laferrieri, the Secretary of the Treasury and the Under-Secretary of Labor. He also made contacts with some students as well as with influential individuals with the regime, all of whom were informed of the plan Prio intended to carry out. This consisted in the establishment of a base in Haiti where arms will be kept. Already trained expeditionary forces were to gather at that base, from whence, in groups, they would sail for Cuba, where they would disembark on different points, thus starting the revolution to overthrow the Cuban Government.

3. To carry out this plan, ex-President Prio made it known that he was willing to spend ONE MILLION DOLLARS. Immediately Fuentes distributed SIXTY THOUSAND DOLLARS among

On March the 8th, left for Santiago de Cuba aboard flight 467 of Compania Cubana de Aviacion to get in contact with the conspirators in Cuba, envisaging the speedy execution of the plan. As is a student, it was thought advisable to send him on this mission in order to avoid suspicions.

4. Mr. Laferriere and the Under Secretary of Labor were the liaison parties with ex-President Sylvain, and they arranged a meeting between the President and of ex-President Carlos Prio Socarras. This meeting was secretly held at the Presidential Palace at Port-au-Prince at night, between the 14th and the 16th of last March. On that occasion Antonio Prio Socarras handed President Sylvain the sum of ONE HUNDRED AND FIFTY THOUSAND DOLLARS, as well as ONE HUNDRED THOUSAND DOLLARS to be given, as he declared to A HIGH RANKING OFFICER. Ex-Minister Lafferriere RECEIVED ONE HUNDRED THOUSAND DOLLARS, and another ONE HUNDRED THOUSAND DOLLARS went to the UNDER SECRETARY OF LABOR.

5. As it was expected that President Sylvain would stay in office until May, it was understood that his successor would guarantee the pledge to carry out this plan, in case that due to the short time the revolution's outbreak in Cuba would be delayed. Bearing this in mind, President Sylvain arranged a meeting between Prio Socarras and presidential candidate Francois Duvalier. At this meeting the continuity to support the Prio plan was agreed upon, and Prio pledged himself to defray all expenses for the electoral campaign. To this end the sum of FOUR HUNDRED THOUSAND DOLLARS was advanced with the intention of buying voting cards. This procedure was put into action immediately, thus raising the protest of all other candidates, who upon learning of this, requested that the inscription procedure be stopped. They also requested that the Cabinet be removed, and this was the cause of the internal crisis which brought down the Government of President Sylvain.

6. Once Prio and President Sylvain reached their agreement the introduction of arms and explosives into Haiti by the Prio associates was accelerated, and a quantity of them was stored in the domiciles of Members of the Cabinet. Ex-President Prio also instructed his men to act as they did in Cuba, setting up bombs and throwing the so called Molotov cocktails. This procedure took the haitian people by surprise, as they had never before engaged in these methods. On one occasion when two officers of the Haitian Army went to seize an arms cache in Thor, near Port-au-Prince, they were blown by an explosion and died from its effects.

7. Notwithstanding this failure motivated by the downfall of President Sylvain's regime, ex-President Prio continues in his efforts towards the establishment of this base in Haiti, as he still believes that his manoeuvres have not been discovered. He has also made contacts with _____ and _____ with presidential candidates Louis Dejoie, Clement Jumelle and Daniel Sinogle. An agreement has already been reached between Dejoie and Jumelle, but not with Sinogle who flatly refused.

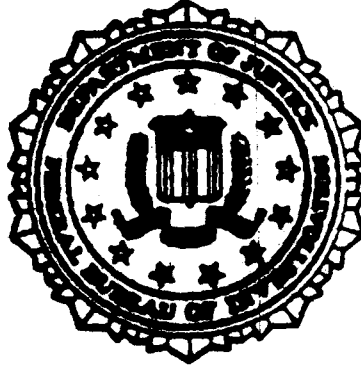

8. Most of the arms introduced in Haiti remain undiscovered.

9. _____ uses the following code for delivery of his messages to ex-President Prio:

Following the overthrow of [REDACTED] in August, 1933, Cuba went through a series of temporary and provisional governments until 1940. Always in the background of these governments during this period was FULGENCIO BATISTA ZALDIVAR, who had been a Sergeant in the Cuban Army at the time that [REDACTED] was forced to give up the government and who developed into something of a strong man in the ensuing period. b7C

Following the adoption of a Constitution in 1940, BATISTA was elected President of Cuba and served a four-year term ending in 1944. Former

In the elections of 1944, BATISTA's hand picked candidate, Dr. CARLOS SALADRIGAS, was defeated by Dr. RAMON GRAU SAN MARTIN, who headed the Partido Revolucionario Cubano (Autentico). GRAU's administration from 1944 to 1948 was marked by a period of post war prosperity and for this reason he acquired great popularity with the people.

In 1948, CARLOS PRIO SOCARRAS, PRC(A) candidate, was elected for a four-year term. PRIO's administration was marked by relative prosperity, but also by large amounts of graft on the part of high government officials, including PRIO himself.

In preparation for the general elections scheduled to be held on June 1, 1952, there were three leading candidates for President of Cuba: [REDACTED] representing the so-called [REDACTED] b7C [REDACTED] representing the [REDACTED] and FULGENCIO BATISTA ZALDIVAR, whose Party was known as the Partido Accion Progresista. In the months leading up to the election date, it became rather apparent that [REDACTED] would probably win the election due to the unpopularity of the [REDACTED] caused by the large amounts of graft mentioned above and the personal unpopularity of the Party candidate [REDACTED] and due to dislike of BATISTA which was a carry-over from his previous presidential term.

ENCLOSURE

With this situation existing, BATISTA, together with a small group of Cuban Army officers and ex-officers, in the early morning hours of March 10, 1952, staged an almost bloodless coup d'etat and took over the government of Cuba. With this date as a starting point, it is desired to set forth below in a chronological sequence a summary of events of a political nature which have occurred since the date BATISTA returned to power.

Chronology:

May 5--A Cuban Army source reported receipt of information to the effect that several Cubans in Miami were planning an assassination attempt against President BATISTA in an effort to overthrow his government. As will be shown, this was the first report in a long list of numerous such rumors in this vein.

December 19--Local authorities at Mamaroneck, New York, arrested several Cubans and an American and seized a large quantity of arms which were reported to be destined for use in a Cuban revolutionary attempt. It was also reported that a 63 foot ship designed for use by the Cuban revolutionaries was located by the authorities.

April 5--A group of about sixty persons, mostly University students, [REDACTED] were arrested in the vicinity of Camp Columbia, headquarters of the Cuban Army in Havana. It was reported that this group had planned to attack the Camp. b7C

May 21--[REDACTED] mentioned above, was sentenced to serve two years for his participation in the alleged conspiracy mentioned above. A number of other individuals were sentenced to serve lesser terms. b7C

May 28--Ex-President CARLOS PRIO SOCARRAS, who had gone into exile in Mexico following the March 10 coup d'etat of BATISTA and who had subsequently moved to the United States traveled to Montreal, Canada, for the purpose of holding a meeting with representatives of the PRC(A) and Ortodoxo Parties. Fla.

June 3--The group meeting in Montreal made a public announcement proposing a basis for a national formula to settle the Cuban problem based on the re-establishment of the Constitution of 1940, which had been suspended by BATISTA at the time he took over the government on March 10, 1952. It was stated that the BATISTA Government did not have the capacity for carrying out elections and it was deemed indispensable that a provisional government be organized to supervise elections. The declaration also condemned personal assassination attempts and terrorist activities.

These declarations were issued in the form of a signed document dated June 2, 1953, which was called the "Montreal Charter" and it was signed by numerous representatives of the PRC(A) and Ortodoxo Parties.

July 26--A large group of young men, headed by FIDEL CASTRO RUZ, at about 5:00 a.m. began to infiltrate and attack the Cuban Army fortress known as Cuartel Moncada, which is located on the outskirts of Santiago de Cuba. This attack was almost successful and, according to published reports, 76 persons were killed and 36 were wounded before the attackers were driven off by the Cuban Army. FIDEL CASTRO himself was successful in escaping, but was later captured, tried and sentenced to a long term in prison. He did not complete this sentence, being released under a general amnesty law issued by the BATISTA Government at a later date.

November 27--One JOSE MARIO FORTUNY RODRIGUEZ was shot and killed by members of the Cuban Army Military Intelligence Service (SIM). FORTUNY was an associate of [REDACTED] b7C in the PRIO Government and one of the principal leaders in revolutionary activities against the BATISTA Government. Although it was officially reported by the government that FORTUNY was killed when he resisted arrest and opened fire on the SIM agents, it subsequently developed that he had been killed during the course of an interview at SIM headquarters. His death is mentioned only because it was the first case of a member of the opposition being deliberately killed by government agents. There have been numerous such deaths since that time.

December 4--Ex-President PRIO and several of his followers were arrested in Miami by U. S. Customs Agents and charged with purchasing rifles to be exported to Cuba without licenses. These arrests grew out of an indictment by a Federal Grand Jury in New York. This was the first formal accusation made against PRIO in the United States, although the Cuban Government had been alleging that he was conspiring against this government practically ever since March 10, 1952.

September 7--Ex-President PRIO [REDACTED] entered pleas of nolo contendere in Federal Court in New York City on charges of conspiring to export arms and war materials from the United States to Cuba in violation of the U. S. Neutrality Act. PRIO was fined $9,000 [REDACTED] b7C

November 1--General elections were held in Cuba. The only opposition candidate who had announced for President against BATISTA was ex-President RAMON GRAU SAN MARTIN. It was the general consensus of opinion that if free and honest elections were held, GRAU would easily defeat BATISTA. BATISTA apparently recognized this fact and in the months preceding the elections, the Cuban Army and police did everything possible to frighten and intimidate GRAU followers. These actions included allegations of beatings, withholding of the voters' electoral carnets and other such tactics. As a result, three days before elections were to be held, GRAU announced his withdrawal from the Presidential race and urged his followers not to go to the polls. BATISTA, without opposition and aided and abetted by the strong-arm tactics of the military authorities and of his followers, was easily elected President for a four-year term to begin on February 24, 1955.

February 24--In the early morning of this date Cuban police seized a large quantity of arms and ammunition, including about 40 machine guns, 2,000 hand grenades and other assorted arms and ammunition. At the same time they shot and killed a well-known Cuban gangster and revolutionary named ORLANDO LEON LEMUS. Other than this the inauguration of President BATISTA to begin his four-year term went off on this date without incident.

August 11--Ex-President PRIO returned to Havana from Miami on this date. This return followed a series of negotiations with his followers and the Cuban Government. Although PRIO publicly announced that he was returning to Cuba to look for a peaceful solution to the Cuban problem, there was considerable conjecture that he was returning to lead revolutionary activities of his followers.

April 2-3--A number of high ranking officers of the Cuban Army, headed by Colonel RAMON BARQUIN, Cuban Military Attache to Washington, were arrested and charged with conspiring against the government. This was considered extremely significant in that it was the first time that there had been allegations of any large scale conspiracy within the Armed Forces which had always been BATISTA's mainstay in continuing himself in power.

April 9--Thirteen officers, including Colonel BARQUIN, were tried by Summary Court Martial, were convicted and given sentences ranging from four to six years each. In addition, a number of officers and soldiers, who were arrested but released for lack of evidence, were subsequently retired from the Army.

April 29--A small group of oppositionists attacked the Cuban Army fortress called Cuartel Goicuria at Matanzas, Cuba, about sixty miles from Havana. The attack was repulsed and they reported thirteen of the attackers were killed.

May 9--The then Chief of the Cuban National Police, Brigadier General RAFAEL SALAS CANIZARES, called on ex-President PRIO at the latter's country home outside Havana and forced PRIO to accompany him to the airport where PRIO was placed aboard a plane for Miami. The official announcements of the government alleged that this action was taken because PRIO was again conspiring to overthrow the BATISTA Government.

October 28--In the early morning hours on this date Colonel ANTONIO BLANCO RICO, Chief of the Cuban Army Military Intelligence Service, was shot and killed in a downtown Havana night club and several persons accompanying him were wounded. This was the first individual assassination attempt against any high official of the Cuban Government.

October 29--Brigadier General RAFAEL SALAS CANIZARES, Chief of the Cuban National Police, called at the Haitian Embassy in Havana where he was allegedly met by gunfire from within the Embassy. In the ensuing gun battle SALAS CANIZARES was seriously wounded and some ten Cuban oppositionists, who had taken exile in the Haitian Embassy, were killed. This resulted in a strong diplomatic protest from the Haitian Government. Exact facts as to just what went on at the Haitian Embassy have never been made known and there have been varying versions as to just what occurred there.

Cuba October 31--General SALAS CANIZARES died of wounds received at the Haitian Embassy on October 29 and was succeeded as Chief of the Cuban National Police by Brigadier General ~~HERNANDO~~ HERNANDEZ HERNANDEZ.

November 30--A group of young men belonging to the 26th of July Movement (this movement takes its name from the July 26, 1953, attack on the Moncada fortress at Santiago de Cuba) attacked the respective headquarters of the National and Maritime Police in Santiago de Cuba. They were successful in taking and holding both headquarters for some time and in burning the headquarters of the National Police. The Cuban Army was eventually successful in regaining control of the situation and reported casualties were relatively small.

December 2--FIDEL CASTRO RUZ, leader of the 26th of July Movement, and some 80 of his followers made a landing on the south coast of Oriente Province, Cuba, from a yacht called the "Gramma" which they had traveled from Mexico on. It subsequently developed that this landing was to have been coordinated with the November 30 uprising in Santiago de Cuba, but due to circumstances beyond their control they did not arrive until December 2. There were numerous rumors that CASTRO had been killed in this landing; however, this was subsequently proved to be untrue.

of Cuba 1957
March 13--A group of approximately 40 PRIO followers led by ex-Congressman ~~MENELAO~~ MORA attacked the Presidential Palace in downtown Havana. The group was successful in penetrating the Palace and but for the lack of proper organization would probably have killed President BATISTA, Cuba who was in the Palace at the time. The attack was eventually repulsed by the Palace garrison and reinforcements from Camp Columbia and practically the entire group of attackers, including MENELAO MORA, was killed. Simultaneous with the attack, a small group, led by JOSE ECHEVARRIA, President of the Havana University Students Federation, took over a local radio station and announced that BATISTA was dead. ECHEVARRIA was intercepted by police after he left the radio station and was killed.

April 20--The police shot and killed four individuals who allegedly were resisting arrest. Included in this group was FRUCTUOSO RODRIGUEZ PEREZ, President of the Havana University Students Federation who succeeded JOSE ECHEVARRIA, mentioned above. Also killed was JUAN PEDRO CARBO SERVIA, who had been accused by Cuban authorities of having assassinated Colonel ANTONIO BLANCO RICO, Chief of the Military Intelligence Service.

May 24--A group of some 27 men, headed by one CALIXTO SANCHEZ WHITE, made a landing on the north coast of Oriente Province, Cuba, from a boat called the "Corinthea." Investigation indicated that this group, members of which were followers of ex-President PRIO, had departed from Miami on May 19, 1957. It was subsequently announced by the Cuban Government that 16 members of this group, including CALIXTO SANCHEZ WHITE, had engaged in combat with the Cuban Army and had been killed. Fairly reliable information received at a later date indicated that the group of 16 had actually been captured and had been ordered executed by Colonel FERMIN COWLEY, Chief of the Seventh Rural Guard Regiment of the Cuban Army with headquarters at Holguin, Oriente Province, Cuba.

May 28--In the early morning hours of this date an extremely potent bomb was exploded beneath underground high tension cables leading from the main electric plant in downtown Havana. A large area of the downtown section was left without electricity for approximately two days. Although large quantities of bombs had been set off by oppositionists in Havana and throughout the Island of Cuba on previous occasions, this was the first instance in which the oppositionists were successful in doing serious damage.

August 1--Recently arrived American Ambassador to Cuba, EARL E. T. SMITH, made a courtesy visit to Santiago de Cuba. A group of some 200 women oppositionists attempted to present Ambassador SMITH with a document protesting repressive activities of the Cuban Government. This demonstration was broken up by members of the Cuban Army and police, which led to a public statement by Ambassador SMITH which was somewhat critical of the Army and police action. On the same date and for independent reasons, a general strike was started in Santiago which in the next few days spread to other parts of the island. A general strike was scheduled for Havana on August 5, but due to strong repressive measures on the part of the police, the strike did not prosper in Havana and this in turn resulted in the collapse of the strike in other parts of the island.

September 5--Some of the members of the Cuban Navy detachment at Cienfuegos, Las Villas Province, Cuba, staged an uprising and took over the Navy Headquarters in Cienfuegos. They were joined by members of the 26th of July Movement and were successful in taking over National Police Headquarters in Cienfuegos and controlling the city until the afternoon of September 5 when Army reinforcements, aided by strafing planes of the Cuban Air Force, were successful in recapturing the city. This, of course, led to a large scale purge in the Cuban Navy and a number of Naval officers and enlisted men were court-martialed and convicted. Others were forcibly retired. It is to be noted that according to reliable information received, the Cienfuegos uprising was only a part of an over-all general plan which included an uprising of the Navy in Havana. Again, due to lack of coordination, the general plan was not carried out and through faulty communications the Cienfuegos group was not advised that the plan had been postponed.

November 23--Colonel FERMIN COWLEY, Chief of the Seventh Rural Guard Regiment of the Cuban Army with headquarters at Holguin, Oriente Province, Cuba, was shot and killed instantly by persons as yet unidentified by the Cuban Government. COWLEY was the object of extreme hatred on the part of members of the opposition because of his highhanded tactics which included the execution of more than 20 members of the opposition either by shooting or hanging at Christmas time 1956.

Apart from the above chronological sequence, it might be noted that from the Fall of 1956 until about April, 1957, a group of approximately 150 Cubans were in training in a camp in the Dominican Republic for the supposed purpose of making an invasion of Cuba. This training camp was reported to have grown out of arrangements made between ex-President PRIO and [REDACTED] b7c

Vague information has also been received that ex-President PRIO has endeavored to work out arrangements with the Haitian Government to utilize Haiti as a jumping off point for an invasion of Cuba.

Political Future:

The BATISTA Government has announced that general elections will be held on June 1, 1958. In recent political reorganizations four political parties belonging to the government coalition and four opposition parties qualified to participate in these general elections. Members of the opposition with whom contact has been had are generally pessimistic about whether: (a) The elections will be held at all; and (b) If the elections are held, they are extremely doubtful that they will be honest elections. President BATISTA has announced that he will not be a candidate, nor could he be a candidate under the present Constitution which prohibits any President from succeeding himself, but there is every indication that the government intends to continue the BATISTA regime in power.

In the event elections are not held or in the event BATISTA is overthrown or assassinated prior to the election date, it is felt that there is no one man in Cuba capable of maintaining control and public order. This leaves as an only alternative a military junta. From time to time there have been indications of increasing unrest in the Cuban Armed Forces and it is felt that such a junta is not a too remote possibility.

Intelligence

Because of the ever increasing opposition to the BATISTA Government, Cuban law enforcement and intelligence organizations have more and more dedicated their time and efforts to the investigation of opposition activities against the BATISTA Government and the repression of the same. Following is a brief summary and outline of the agencies engaged in investigation opposition activity and maintaining law and order in Cuba:

The Cuban Army is actually as much a policing as a military organization. Through its Rural Guard Regiments, it handles practically all investigative and police work in the interior of the Republic. The only truly military work presently being carried on by the Cuban Army is that of approximately 2,000 members of the Army who are in the Sierra Maestra Mountain region of Oriente Province endeavoring to capture or kill FIDEL CASTRO and his followers, who are still holding forth in that area following the December 2, 1956, landing.

The Cuban Army Military Intelligence Service is an investigative group whose efforts are dedicated almost exclusively to the investigation and repression of the activities of oppositionists to the BATISTA Government.

The Cuban National Police, while having island-wide jurisdiction, is mainly concentrated in the Havana area. While members of the National Police in Havana are largely used for maintaining law and order, one group headed by notorious Major ESTEBAN VENTURA NOVO, has been particularly effective in ferreting out oppositionists and seizing large quantities of arms and ammunition in possession of the oppositionists.

The Department of Investigation, Plain-clothes Unit of the National Police, also figures prominently in the control and the repression of oppositionist activities.

The Bureau for the Repression of Communist Activities (BRAC) was organized in 1955 for the alleged purpose of investigating and controlling both national and international Communist activities in Cuba. Its personnel at the outset was largely military and to date it has been a very ineffective organization in carrying out its stated purpose. In recent months, its original objective has been almost completely abandoned and all its efforts have been pointed toward the repression of opposition activities.

Other investigative agencies which are small and rather ineffective are the National Secret Police, a part of the Ministry of the Interior, and the Judicial Police of the Ministry of Justice.

RE: ANTI-CASTRO MOVEMENT IS - CUBA

On May 5, 1959, [redacted]
[redacted] Miami, Florida, furnished the following information to SAs [redacted] and [redacted]

Beginning at 11:00 p.m. on the night of May 5, 1959, an anti-communist radio program will be started over radio station WMIE with 15 minutes in English and 15 minutes in Spanish. This program is sponsored by the "Movimiento Anti-Communist America Latino", a corporation set up by [redacted] at Miami. [redacted] is supported by contributions from many anti-communist sympathizers. b7C

On May 7, 1959, [redacted]
[redacted] North Miami, Florida, telephonically advised that he had become somewhat disillusioned as the manager of the radio station WMIE, [redacted] had told him that he was going to have to discontinue his nightly broadcast, claiming that a frontal attack on the CASTRO government was childish. [redacted] suggested to [redacted] that he build up CASTRO on his program and merely suggest that CASTRO make corrections in his government. [redacted] said that the radio station allegedly had received telephonic complaints concerning the anti-communist and anti-CASTRO character of this program and that a fight had occurred on the previous night at the radio station. b7C

On May 11, 1959, [redacted] telephonically advised that radio station WMIE had cut him off the air completely after only two broadcasts, but that he was attempting to make arrangements for continuation of his program by other means:

ALL INFORMATION CONTAINED
HEREIN IS UNCLASSIFIED
DATE 3-12-85 BY SP6BJA/TAC

On May 13, 1959, [redacted] who has furnished information concerning Cuban activities in the past, advised that she learned from a Cuban official that Fidel Castro, Prime Minister of Cuba, has a hazy dream of liberating Latin-American people from dictators and eventually uniting Latin-American countries into possibly one nation.

This Cuban official reportedly advised [redacted] that Castro on May 9, 1959, met with a group of Haitians and on May 10, 1959, with a group made up of Guatemalans, Nicaraguans and two Costa Ricans. Both meetings allegedly were for the purpose of discussing aid to be given by Castro in forthcoming invasions. According to the information furnished by [redacted] the meetings ended and no agreement was reached. However, Castro's assurance of help was reportedly obtained. b7C

The afore-mentioned Cuban official reportedly advised [redacted] that Fidel Castro had seen Enrique Jimenez, Dominican revolutionary, three times during the past weekend and that the son of President Trujillo of the Dominican Republic is trying to provoke a situation with Cuba which would prompt Trujillo to allow military force under his son to strike at Cuba. 18

Mr. E. Tomlin Bailey

It was the opinion of the afore-mentioned Cuban official that Castro might resort to the use of a military force against Panama if the diplomats failed to gain the release of the Cuban expeditionaries being held in Panama.

According to [redacted] an unidentified source advised her that Raul Castro, Fidel Castro's brother, was receiving three and one-half per cent on sales by certain fruit shippers for "expediting" the shipping of fruit out of the country.

[] also advised that recently in a newspaper article appearing in one of the Havana newspapers, there was a story connecting Dr. BARROSO and FRANCISCO TABERNILLA, JR. with a group of anti-CASTRO people. [] stated that this was untrue and also related that BARROSO was never friendly with the TABERNILLA family nor was he, [] very friendly with the TABERNILLAS. [] advised that in the aforementioned newspaper article his name did not appear as being engaged in anti-CASTRO activities. b7C

[] on 5/8/59, telephonically advised that he had spoken to Dr. BARROSO about the allegations that Dr. BARROSO was involved in anti-CASTRO activities. [] stated that BARROSO was very upset about this matter and desired to speak with a representative of the Bureau concerning this matter.

Dr. JORGE BARROSO, 655 Park Ave., NYC, was interviewed on 5/8/59, at which time Dr. BARROSO stated that he has been engaged all his life in the sugar industry in Cuba and that he is a lawyer by profession. BARROSO advised that he has never engaged in politics in any way during his entire lifetime nor has he ever engaged in any revolutionary activities nor has he ever been involved in the purchase of arms for such purposes.

Dr. BARROSO stated that throughout his life, he has remained neutral in political matters in Cuba and has been on a friendly basis with former Presidents RAMON GRAU SAN MARTIN, FULGENCIO BATISTA and CARLOS PRIO SOCARRAS. Dr. BARROSO stated that in 1931, he was appointed Head of the Sugar Institute by Dr. PRIO, who was then President of Cuba and then after PRIO was overthrown by BATISTA, BARROSO continued him in his position as Head of the Sugar Institute in Cuba. Dr. BARROSO stated that he held this post until 1/1/59, when the BATISTA Government was overthrown. BARROSO stated that he stayed on in Havana to assist the people who were taking over the new Government and instructed them regarding the policies and procedures of the Sugar Institute. BARROSO stated that he is a very close friend of ALBERTO FERNANDEZ CASAS, father of ALBERTO FERNANDEZ, who is now the new Head of the Sugar Institute under the Government of FIDEL CASTRO, Prime Minister of Cuba.

NY 105-35253

Dr. BARROSO stated that he had been advised by one of his sons, who recently returned from Havana, that an article had appeared in one of the Havana newspapers linking Dr. BARROSO with General FRANCISCO TABERNILLA, JR. and other individuals engaged in anti-CASTRO activities in the US. Dr. BARROSO stated that this story was untrue and he desired to go to Havana to defend himself and the reputation of his family but that he had been advised to the contrary since such an accusation branded him as anti-revolutionary and meant automatic imprisonment and probably execution.

Dr. BARROSO advised that one day during March, 1959, while General FRANCISCO TABERNILLA, JR., was visiting NY, he met TABERNILLA together with [REDACTED] b7C

[REDACTED] and former brother-in-law of FIDEL CASTRO in TABERNILLA's suite at the Waldorf Astoria. Dr. BARROSO stated that he accepted this invitation of TABERNILLA because he was desirous of knowing what was going on in Cuba and what information TABERNILLA might have regarding plans of former Government officials to get back into power. BARROSO advised that there was nothing discussed at this meeting regarding anti-revolutionary activities nor was the purchase of arms discussed at this meeting. BARROSO advised that TABERNILLA invited them to lunch and that he, BARROSO, wanted to have lunch in TABERNILLA's suite but TABERNILLA insisted on going downstairs to one of the dining rooms in the Waldorf. BARROSO stated that it is his opinion that since many Latins are employed at the Waldorf he had been seen and presumed that there was rumors that this group was actually engaged in anti-CASTRO activities.

Dr. BARROSO stated that he is renting his apartment at 655 Park Avenue, until 6/5/59, at which time he, his wife, two sons, daughter and son-in-law, will sail on the USS "Independence" for Spain. BARROSO stated that he has rented a Villa outside of Madrid for three months and intends to travel extensively in Europe and he feels that at the end of this three month period the situation in Cuba will be altered and that CASTRO will have been overthrown and that he and his family will then return to Cuba.

The Bureau, Miami and Washington Field's attention is directed to NY airtel dated 2/20/59, entitled, "ALLEGED PLOT AGAINST CURRENT VENEZUELAN GOVERNMENT; IS-VENEZUELA", page two of this referenced airtel, paragraph one reflects that investigation conducted by WFO regarding [redacted] who is the source of information regarding the alleged activities on the part of FRANCISCO TABERNILLA, [redacted] and JORGE BARROSO, indicates that [redacted] is unreliable and that he admitted that the allegation that Venezuelans had met in the Taft Hotel, NYC on 1/30/59, to discuss plans to gain power in Venezuela was pure conjecture on his part. Investigation conducted by the NYO reflects that persons named by [redacted] as residing in the Taft Hotel did not reside there in January, 1959, as he had indicated. b7C

It is the opinion of the NYO that no further investigation should be conducted concerning this matter involving TABERNILLA, [redacted] and BARROSO.

[redacted] who has furnished information concerning Cuban activities in the past, on May 7, 1959, advised that the arms mentioned in the referenced communication were purchased by former Cuban Senator Rolando Masferrer and that a United States pilot named Mackie or Mickey may fly one of the planes for the Batista element. The arms reportedly include 1,000 Springfield rifles and 150 Thompson machine guns. She stated that the information was furnished to her by [redacted]

[redacted] stated that according to Enrique Cabre, a Fidel Castro adjutant, 3,000 marines have received training by the Castro forces to be used for invasions of other countries but the plan was abandoned as a result of embarrassment to Castro over the Panamanian incident and the fear that the activities of the Organization of American States will be directed against Cuba.

Cabre reportedly quoted Raul Castro, Fidel Castro's brother, as stating that Fidel Castro promised to appoint Blas Roca, Secretary General of the Communist Party of Cuba, as Labor Minister and to change the Minister of Agriculture upon Castro's return to Cuba. Concerning the Minister of Agriculture, Nori Marin, information was received on May 7, 1959, by a source close to this individual, that Marin is disappointed at the "leftist" trend of the Cuban Government and the fact that he does not have more to say in the agrarian reform program which Commander Ernesto "Che" Guevara appears to be controlling.

Cabre also reportedly stated that about 1,700 persons have been executed to date instead of less than 600 as has been reported and that the 90-day suspension of habeas corpus was issued by Raul Castro and Guevara without clearance of Fidel Castro.

The above is for your information. We are endeavoring to obtain additional information and pertinent results will be furnished to you.

RE: ANTI-FIDEL CASTRO ACTIVITIES

Dear Sir:

On May 5, 1959, [redacted] of New York City, who is familiar with Cuban revolutionary activities, advised that [redacted] of the Cuban Sugar Institute, Havana, stated on May 4, 1959, the former followers of ex-President of Cuba Fulgencio Batista, have assembled arms in the area of West Palm Beach, Florida. b7C

[redacted] stated this arms cache probably included two P-51 airplanes to be used in a counter revolution against the government of Fidel Castro of Cuba on some unknown date.

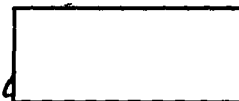

[redacted] stated possibly one of these P-51's may be used in an attempt to shoot down the airplane used by Fidel Castro's Prime Minister of Cuba on his return to Cuba from South America. At the present time the Miami Office of the FBI has no further information concerning the above allegations. b7C

Re myairtel, 5/13/59, concerning bribery operation being carried on by U.S. Customs, Miami.

On 5/13/59 [] Customs Agent, U.S. Customs, Miami, advised that also cooperating with the group involving JULIO LAURENT, MARIANO FAGET and Dominican Consul FERRANDO is EDUARDO HERNANDEZ, former Cuban Consul General in Miami, and JULIO POWER, former registered agent of the Cuban Government.

[] stated that HERNANDEZ has money, political influence and a group in Miami supporting him, and desires to be the next president of Cuba.

JULIO POWER has no influence, money or political following, and appears to be doing odd jobs and messenger type activity for this group.

[] stated that ROLANDO MASFERRER, former Cuban Senator, is not included in the above group and is not well considered by this group, nor acceptable to them, because of his bad reputation in Cuba. b7C

[] stated that General FRANCISCO TABERNILLA, former Chief of Staff of the Cuban Army, presently residing in West Palm Beach, Fla., does not belong to the above group, is not included in their activities, and U.S. Customs has no information that he is in possession of any arms or articles of war, or is engaged in anti-CASTRO activity.

[] advised that ORLANDO PIEDRA, former Chief of the Cuban Bureau of Investigation, presently residing in Fort Lauderdale, Fla., is also actively involved in the above group, but LANKFORD did not know the extent of PIEDRA's involvement.

LIQUORI is known to the Miami Office as a close friend and associate of General RAMPIS TRUJILLO, Chief of the Dominican Air Force. He accompanied TRUJILLO on the latter's visit to the United States and attendance at Army General Staff School, Ft. Leavenworth, Kan., in 1958. LIQUORI is allegedly involved in sending girls and small arms to the Dominican Republic for the use of RAFAEL and RAMPIS TRUJILLO. b7C

[] stated that he fears that if FAGET and HERNANDEZ become aware that he is cooperating with the Dominican Consul concerning an arms shipment, they will want the Consul to discontinue any further contacts with []

[] said that at a recent meeting at the Dominican Consulate, FERRANDO had JULIO POWER come in the room and personally identify [] as being themselves and Customs Agents. It appeared that FERRANDO wanted to make sure he was talking to [] and not impersonators.

[] stated that he and [] were not making any written reports in this matter; Customs did not want the information concerning Customs' activity in this bribery case disseminated outside the Bureau; there was no date scheduled for apprehensions, and that decisions were being made on a day-to-day basis.

One person working under PUJOL's influence is a former Cuban Air Force lieutenant named BARONET who is about 5'5", slender, 30 to 35 years of age, 145 lbs., who appears to be in charge of Cuban rebel pilots now in Miami. The top half is red containing two photographs, one photograph of FIDEL CASTRO with a red flag and a hammer and sickle behind him and a photograph of BATISTA. Under the photograph of FIDEL CASTRO he is quoted as saying, "I have planted communism in Cuba and have killed 5,000 Cubans." Under the photograph of BATISTA he says, "I have killed 10,000 Cubans and stole ten million dollars." The bottom of the leaflet printed in black says, "And what have you done for Cuba?"
